Page 1: Vocabulary Building

Learn the following vocabulary related to country and city environments:

- Rural: a quiet and peaceful place with lots of green trees
- Urban: a busy and noisy place with tall buildings
- Farm: a place where crops and animals are raised
- Village: a small group of houses and shops in the country
- Pollution: harmful substances in the air, water, or soil

Use a dictionary or online resources to learn more about these words.

Read the following passage about country and city environments:

The country is a quiet and peaceful place with lots of green trees and fresh air. People in the country often live on farms or in small villages. In contrast, the city is a busy and noisy place with tall buildings and many people. Cities have parks, shops, and restaurants, but they can be crowded and polluted.

1. What are the main differences between the country and the city?

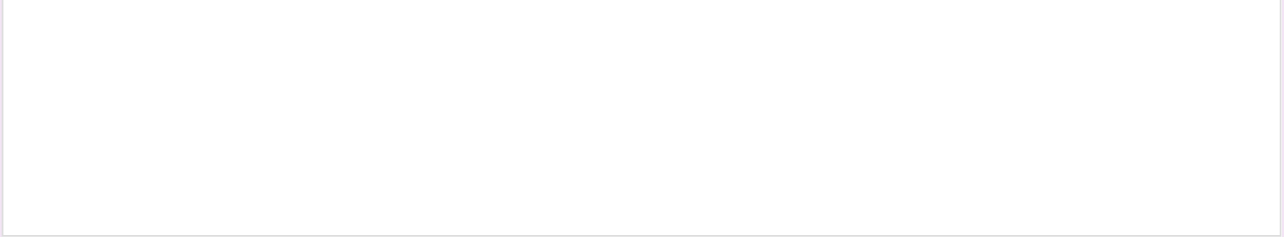

2. Which environment do you prefer and why?

Match the vocabulary words with their correct definitions:

Word	Definition
Rural	a quiet and peaceful place with lots of green trees
Urban	a busy and noisy place with tall buildings
Farm	a place where crops and animals are raised
Village	a small group of houses and shops in the country
Pollution	harmful substances in the air, water, or soil

Imagine you are visiting a city for the first time. Write a short paragraph (5-7 sentences) describing what you see, hear, and feel. Use at least three vocabulary words from the word list.

Draw a diagram comparing the country and city environments. Include pictures or symbols to represent the different features of each environment.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a student to draw a diagram comparing country and city environments. The box is positioned below the instruction text and is surrounded by a light purple dashed border.

Write a short story (1-2 pages) about a character who moves from the country to the city or vice versa. Describe their experiences and feelings about the new environment.

Reflect on your learning by answering the following questions:

1. What did I learn about country and city environments?

2. What challenges did I face, and how did I overcome them?

3. What would I like to learn more about in the future?

4. How can I apply what I learned to real-life situations?
