

Guided Reading Strategies

Empowering 14-Year-Old Readers

What is Guided Reading?

A targeted, small-group instructional approach designed to develop comprehensive reading skills by providing personalized support and strategic instruction.

Group Composition

Students grouped by similar reading levels

Primary Goal

Develop independent, proficient readers

Core Reading Strategies

Predicting

Anticipate text content and outcomes before and during reading

Connecting

Link text content to personal experiences and prior knowledge