

Introduction (Week 1)

Read the introduction to the 9-week reading plan and answer the following questions:

1. What is the main purpose of the 9-week reading plan?

2. What types of texts will be used in the reading plan?

3. What skills will students develop by the end of the 9 weeks?

Week 1-3: Building Foundations

Read and analyze texts from school journals, connected series, and junior journals. Complete comprehension questions and vocabulary building exercises.

Group Task:

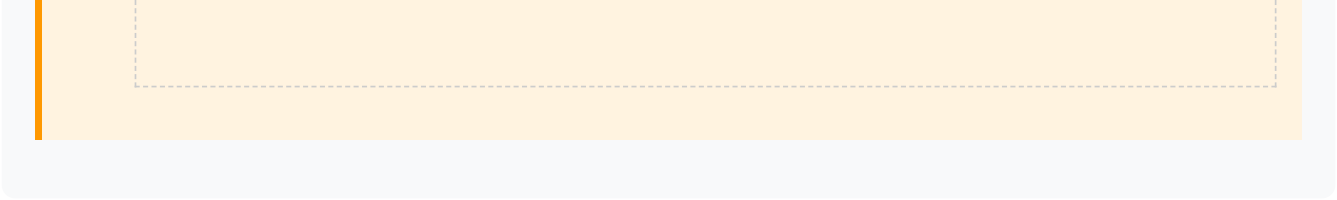

Discuss the following questions in groups:

1. What is the main idea of the text?

Page

2. What is the author's purpose in writing the text?

3. How does the author use literary devices to convey the main idea?

Week 4-6: Exploring Literary Devices

Read and analyze texts that feature literary devices such as metaphors, similes, and personification. Complete activities that focus on identifying and analyzing literary devices.

Group Task:

Identify and analyze the literary devices used in the following texts:

1. Text 1:

2. Text 2:

3. Text 3:

Week 7-9: Analyzing Complex Texts

Read and analyze complex texts that feature multiple themes, motifs, and literary devices. Complete activities that focus on analyzing and evaluating complex texts.

Group Task:

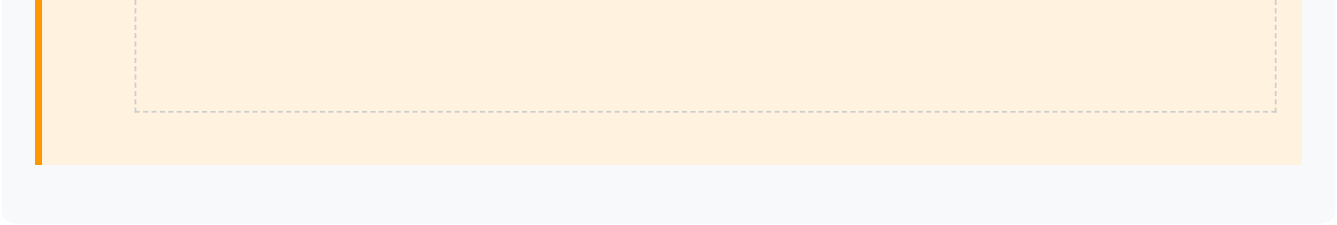

Analyze the following complex texts:

1. Text 1:

Page

2. Text 2:

3. Text 3:

Activities and Questions

Answer the following questions:

1. What is the main idea of the text?

2. What is the author's purpose in writing the text?

3. How does the author use literary devices to convey the main idea?

4. What is the significance of the title of the text?

5. How does the text relate to your own life or experiences?

Assessment and Evaluation

Complete the following assessment tasks:

Page

Group Task:

Complete a comprehension quiz on the texts read during the 9 weeks.

Participate in a class discussion on the themes and motifs of the texts.

Conclusion

Reflect on what you have learned during the 9 weeks and answer the following questions:

1. What was the most surprising thing you learned during the 9 weeks?

2. How will this learning change your actions in the future?

3. What questions do you still have about reading comprehension?

Extension Activities

Choose one of the following extension activities:

Group Task:

Participate in a book club where you discuss and analyze a selected text.

Create a literary magazine that features articles, reviews, and creative writing pieces.

Parent Engagement

Parents, please engage with your child's reading development by:

Parent Task:

Attending a reading workshop where you learn about the reading plan and how to support your child's reading development.

Receiving regular progress updates from the teacher, including feedback on your child's reading comprehension and vocabulary building.

Answer Key

Check your answers with the following answer key:

1. The main idea of the text is to describe the importance of reading.

2. The author's purpose is to persuade the reader to read more.

3. The author uses metaphors and similes to convey the main idea and create a vivid image in the reader's mind.

