

English Language Arts Assessment

| 1. Define what "communication" means in your own words. Provide three key characteristics that make communication effective.  [4 marks]  2. Identify the different types of communication (verbal, non-verbal, written). Give an example of each type.   | me:lss:te:guage Communication | Skills               |                           |                     |           |
|--|---|----------------------|---------------------------|---------------------|-----------|
| the control of the co | Define what "communicati                  |                      | words. Provide three      | key characteristics | that make |
| the control of the co |   |                      |                           |                     |           |
| the contract of the contract o |   |                      |                           |                     |           |
|  |   | of communication (ve | erbal, non-verbal, writte | en). Give an exampl |           |
|  |   |                      |                           |                     |           |
|  |   |                      |                           |                     |           |

Reading Comprehension Strategies

|                | a new text, list five strategies you can use to improve your understanding. | [5 marks              |
|----------------|---|-----------------------|
|                |   |                       |
|                |   |                       |
|                |   |                       |
|                |   |                       |
|                |   |                       |
|                | ference between "skimming" and "scanning" when reading a text. When woul    | d you use[4 marks |
| ach technique? |   |                       |

Writing and Language Structure

| 5. | Describe the four main stages of the writing process. Why is each stage important?             | [6 marks]    |
|----|--|--------------|
|    |  |              |
|    |  |              |
|    |  |              |
|    |  |              |
| 6. | Identify and explain three grammatical structures that can enhance the clarity of your writing | g. [5 marks] |
|    |  |              |
|    |  |              |
|    |  |              |
|    |  |              |

Critical Communication Analysis

| es this[4 marks |
|---------------------|
|                     |
|                     |
| [4 marks            |
|                     |
|                     |
|                     |

Comprehensive Language Challenge

| 9. Create a short narrative that demonstrates at least three different communication techn discussed in this assessment. | iques we've[6 marks]   |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|  |  |
| 10. Reflect on your own communication skills. What is one area you would like to improve,                                | and why?   |
|  | [4 marks]  |
|  | The state of the s |