- Explain the rules of the game and have students take turns drawing word cards and blending sounds to form simple words.

Conclusion and Assessment (Minutes 21-25)

- Gather the students together to review the key concepts learned during the lesson.
- Distribute a simple assessment worksheet to students to assess their understanding of the topic.

Differentiation & Support Strategies

For Struggling Learners:

- Provide additional support and scaffolding during word-building activities.
- Offer one-on-one instruction and feedback.

For Advanced Learners:

- Provide more challenging word-building activities and sentence reading exercises.
- Encourage students to create their own word-building games and activities.

ELL Support Strategies:

- Provide visual aids and graphic organizers to support language development.
- Offer bilingual resources and support.

Social-Emotional Learning Integration:

- Encourage students to work collaboratively and support one another.
- Model and teach social skills such as active listening and empathy.

Assessment & Feedback Plan

Formative Assessment Strategies:

- Observation of student participation during activities.
- Review of student worksheets and assessments.

Success Criteria:

- Students can blend sounds to form simple words.
- Students can read simple sentences with expression and intonation.

Feedback Methods:

- Verbal feedback during activities.
- Written feedback on worksheets and assessments.

Homework & Extension Activities

Homework Assignment:

Ask students to practice reading simple sentences with expression and intonation at home with their parents or guardians.

Extension Activities:

- Create a word-building game or activity to share with the class.
- Write a short story using simple sentences and illustrate it.

Parent/Guardian Connection:

Encourage parents and guardians to support their child's reading development by reading with them regularly and providing feedback.

Pre-Lesson Reflection:

- What challenges do I anticipate?
- Which students might need extra support?
- What backup plans should I have ready?

Post-Lesson Reflection:

- What went well?
- What would I change?
- Next steps for instruction?

Lesson Introduction

Welcome to the exciting world of reading! In this lesson, we will embark on a phonics adventure, exploring the magical world of blending sounds to read simple words and sentences. As 7-year-old students, you are now ready to take your reading skills to the next level, and this lesson is designed to provide you with the tools and confidence to do so.

Lesson Objectives

- Recognize and blend individual sounds to form simple words.
- Decode and read simple words by applying phonics skills.
- Read simple sentences with expression and intonation.
- Apply blending sounds to read unfamiliar words.

Word Building

Distribute word building worksheets to students, containing simple words with individual sounds. Ask students to work in pairs, using the worksheets to practice building words by blending sounds. Encourage students to use the flashcards from the previous activity to help them recognize and blend the sounds.

Sentence Reading

Distribute simple sentence worksheets to students, containing short sentences with basic vocabulary. Ask students to work in pairs, taking turns reading the sentences and using the skills they have learned to blend sounds and decode the text. Encourage students to use expression and intonation when reading.

Games and Activities

Organize students into small groups and provide each group with a set of word cards and a game board. Explain the rules of the game, which involves students taking turns drawing word cards and blending the sounds to form simple words. The first student to correctly read the word earns a point, and the group with the most points at the end of the game wins.

Conclusion and Assessment

Gather the students together to review the key concepts learned during the lesson. Ask students to share their experiences and what they learned. Distribute a simple assessment worksheet to students, containing short sentences and words that require blending sounds to read. Allow students to complete the worksheet independently, and collect it at the end of the lesson to assess their understanding of the topic.

Conclusion and Reflection

Summarize the key concepts learned during the lesson. Ask students to reflect on what they learned and what they would like to learn more about in future lessons. Provide opportunities for students to ask questions and seek help if needed.

Assessment

- Observation of student participation during the lesson.
- Review of student worksheets and assessments.
- Feedback from students and parents.
