Writing Your Story

Use the space below to write your short story.

Review and Edit

Once you have written your first draft, take a break. Then, come back to your story and read it again. Think about how you can improve it. Consider asking a family member or friend to read it and give you feedback.

Peer Review

Exchange your story with a classmate or family member. Read the story you received and provide constructive feedback. Consider what you liked about the story, what was confusing, and what suggestions you have for improvement.

Feedback Form
