

Introduction to "Going to" (10 minutes)

Welcome to this interactive worksheet on using "going to" for predictions and intentions in everyday life. Read the following introduction and answer the questions:

Using "going to" is an essential part of English language learning, as it helps to express future plans and predictions. It can be used to talk about planned actions, predictions based on evidence, and spontaneous decisions.

1. What is "going to" used for?
 - Planned actions
 - Predictions based on evidence
 - Spontaneous decisions
2. Complete the sentence: "I _____ to the store later."
 - am going
 - will go
 - am going to

Predictions with "Going to" (15 minutes)

Read the following sentences and identify whether they express a prediction or an intention:

1. It's going to rain tomorrow.

2. I'm going to study for my exam.

3. We're going to travel to Europe next summer.

Write your own sentence using "going to" to make a prediction:

Intentions with "Going to" (15 minutes)

Read the following sentences and identify whether they express a prediction or an intention:

1. I'm going to apply for a job next week.

2. She's going to have a baby.

3. They're going to get married next year.

Write your own sentence using "going to" to express an intention:

Difference between "Going to" and "Will" (10 minutes)

What is the difference between "going to" and "will"? Complete the sentence:

"I _____ to the movies tonight."

- am going
- will go
- am going to

Role-Play Activity (20 minutes)

Group Task:

Work in pairs and practice using "going to" in a role-play scenario:

- Making plans for a weekend getaway
- Discussing future career plans
- Predicting the outcome of a sports game

Sentence Completion (15 minutes)

Complete the following sentences with the correct form of "going to":

1. By next year, I _____ my degree.

2. We _____ to the beach for vacation.

3. She _____ to be a doctor when she grows up.

Error Correction (10 minutes)

Identify and correct the errors in the following sentences:

1. I goes to the gym tomorrow.

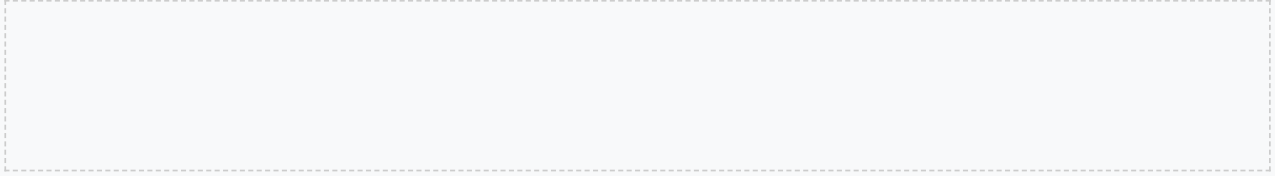

2. It going to be sunny tomorrow.

3. We going to the store later.

Picture Description (15 minutes)

Look at the picture and describe what is happening using "going to":

- A person packing a suitcase
- A weather forecast on TV
- A calendar with upcoming events marked

Group Discussion (20 minutes)

Group Task:

Discuss the following topics in small groups:

- Plans for the weekend
- Expectations for an upcoming event
- Predictions about future technological advancements

Reflection and Conclusion (10 minutes)

Individual Reflection:

1. What did you learn about using "going to" for predictions and intentions?

2. How will you apply this knowledge in your everyday life?

3. What questions do you still have about using "going to"?

