2. What is the purpose of descriptive language in fantasy writing? Provide an example from a fantasy novel you have read. (5 points)

Section 3: Project-Based Task

Create a short story (approx. 250-500 words) that demonstrates your understanding of the key elements of a fantasy novel. Your story should include:

- An imaginary world or landscape
- Magical or supernatural creatures
- A quest or mission
- A battle between good and evil
- The struggle for power

Section 4: Fantasy Novel Elements

Match the following fantasy novel elements with their definitions.

Element	Definition
Imaginary world
Magical creatures
Quest
Battle between good and evil
Struggle for power

Definitions:

- A fictional world created by the author
- Beings with supernatural powers or abilities
- A journey or mission undertaken by the protagonist
- A conflict between opposing forces of good and evil
- A competition for control or dominance

Section 5: Descriptive Language

Read the following passage from a fantasy novel and answer the questions that follow.

"The dark forest was filled with towering trees that seemed to stretch up to the sky. The air was thick with the scent of damp earth and decaying leaves. A faint mist swirled around the trunks of the trees, casting an eerie gloom over the forest floor."

1. What descriptive language techniques are used in this passage? (2 points)

2. How does the author use sensory details to create a vivid image of the forest? (3 points)

Section 6: Creative Writing

Write a descriptive paragraph about a fantasy world or landscape. Use sensory details to bring your world to life.

Section 7: Conclusion

Individual Reflection:

1. What was the most surprising thing you learned about fantasy novels?

2. How will this learning change your actions in the future?

3. What questions do you still have about fantasy novels?
