

Introduction (10 minutes)

Read the introduction to the topic and answer the following questions:

1. What is the importance of teaching proper behavior to preschoolers?

2. How can stories be used to teach proper behavior to preschoolers?

The Importance of Storytelling (15 minutes)

Read the section on the importance of storytelling and answer the following questions:

1. What are some benefits of using storytelling to teach proper behavior to preschoolers?

2. How can storytelling help preschoolers develop their social, emotional, and cognitive skills?

Story Selection Criteria (15 minutes)

Read the section on story selection criteria and answer the following questions:

1. What are some key criteria to consider when selecting stories for preschoolers?

2. How can teachers ensure that their stories are diverse and inclusive?

Storytelling Techniques (20 minutes)

Read the section on storytelling techniques and answer the following questions:

1. What are some effective storytelling techniques for teaching proper behavior to preschoolers?

2. How can teachers use tone, pace, and expression to engage their audience?

Post-Story Discussions (15 minutes)

Read the section on post-story discussions and answer the following questions:

1. What is the importance of post-story discussions in teaching proper behavior to preschoolers?

2. How can teachers facilitate effective post-story discussions?

Activity 1: Story Sequencing (20 minutes)

Read a story that teaches a key element of proper behavior, such as sharing or empathy, and sequence the events of the story in order.

Activity 2: Story Analysis (25 minutes)

Read a story that teaches a key element of proper behavior, such as self-regulation or cooperation, and analyze the story to identify the moral values and social skills conveyed.

Activity 3: Story Creation (30 minutes)

Create your own story that teaches a key element of proper behavior, such as kindness or respect, and include diverse characters and settings.

[Space for story creation]

Questions (20 minutes)

Answer the following questions:

1. What is the importance of teaching proper behavior to preschoolers?

2. How can stories be used to teach proper behavior to preschoolers?

3. What are some key elements of proper behavior that can be taught through stories?

Conclusion (10 minutes)

Reflect on what you have learned about teaching proper behavior to preschoolers through engaging stories.

Individual Reflection:

1. What was the most surprising thing you learned about teaching proper behavior to preschoolers?

2. How will this learning change your actions in the future?

Additional Resources (10 minutes)

Explore the following resources to learn more about teaching proper behavior to preschoolers:

- Books: "The Giving Tree" by Shel Silverstein, "Have You Filled a Bucket Today?" by Carol McCloud
- Websites: PBS Kids, Sesame Street

Assessment (20 minutes)

Complete the following assessment to evaluate your understanding of teaching proper behavior to preschoolers:

