Mastering Verb Tenses and Social Interactions: A Comprehensive English Lesson for 14-Year-Olds

Student Name: _____

Class: _____

Due Date: _____

Introduction

Welcome to this comprehensive English lesson on verb tenses and social interactions! In this lesson, you will learn about the fundamental concepts of verb tenses, including past, present, and future, and how to use them correctly in context. You will also learn essential greetings and introductions in English, which are crucial for effective communication in various social interactions.

Understanding Verb Tenses

Verb tenses are a fundamental concept in English grammar, and understanding their usage is essential for effective communication. The present simple tense is used to describe habits, routines, and general truths, while the present continuous tense is used to describe actions happening at the moment of speaking. The past simple tense is used to describe completed actions in the past, and the future simple tense is used to describe future plans and predictions.

Exercise 1: Verb Tense Identification

1. Identify the correct verb tense in each sentence:

- I _____ (go) to school every day. (present simple)
- She _____ (study) for her exam last night. (past simple)
- They _____ (travel) to Europe next year. (future simple)

Greetings and Introductions

Greetings and introductions are essential social interactions in any language, and English is no exception. When greeting someone, it's common to use phrases like "Hello, how are you?" or "Hi, what's up?" and respond with a phrase like "I'm fine, thank you" or "I'm good, thanks." When introducing oneself, it's common to use phrases like "My name is [name]" or "I'm [name]" and provide some basic information about oneself, such as interests or hobbies.

Exercise 2: Greetings and Introductions

1. Complete the following conversations:

- Person A: "Hello, how are you?" Person B: "_____, thank you."
- Person A: "My name is John." Person B: "_____, I'm Emily."

Exercise 3: Sentence Building

1. Build sentences using the correct verb tense:

- I _____ (eat) breakfast every morning. (present simple)
- She _____ (play) soccer when she was younger. (past simple)
- They _____ (go) to the movies tomorrow. (future simple)

Exercise 4: Role-Play

1. Practice introducing yourself and greeting someone using the correct verb tense:

- "Hello, my name is [name]. I _____ (study) English at school. What about you?"

Exercise 5: Short Writing

1. Write a short paragraph introducing yourself and describing your daily routine using the present simple tense:
