Lesson Introduction

Punctuation marks are the secret code that helps us communicate clearly in writing! They guide readers through our thoughts, showing where to pause, stop, or get excited.

Common Punctuation Marks

Basic Level

. Period: Signals the end of a complete thought

Example: I love learning about punctuation.

, Comma: Separates items or creates a pause

Example: I need milk, bread, eggs, and cheese.

Practice: Add the correct punctuation to these sentences:

a) Sarah went to the store ___ she bought some apples

b) My favorite colors are blue green and purple

Advanced Punctuation

Intermediate Level

? Question Mark: Shows a direct question

Example: Have you ever seen a shooting star?

! Exclamation Point: Expresses strong emotion

Example: What an amazing discovery!

Challenge: Identify the correct punctuation for these sentences:

a) Would you like to go to the park

b) I can't believe we won the game

Self-Assessment
