

Introduction (5 minutes)

Welcome to the Character Education - Ethical Decision Making worksheet! This activity is designed to help you develop critical thinking skills, empathy, and moral awareness. You will be presented with real-life scenarios and questions that require you to apply ethical principles and make informed decisions.

Section 1: Multiple Choice Questions (15 minutes)

Choose the correct answer for each question:

1. What is the primary goal of ethical decision-making?
A) To make a decision that benefits oneself
B) To make a decision that benefits others
C) To make a decision that is fair and just
D) To make a decision that is easy and convenient

2. Which of the following is an example of a personal value that may impact decision-making?
A) Intelligence
B) Creativity
C) Honesty
D) Athleticism

3. What is the term for the process of considering the potential consequences of different choices?
A) Weighing options
B) Evaluating consequences
C) Justifying decisions
D) Analyzing scenarios

Section 2: Short Answer Questions (20 minutes)

Answer each question in complete sentences:

1. Describe a situation where you had to make a difficult decision. What factors did you consider when making your decision?

2. What is the importance of considering multiple perspectives when making a decision? Provide an example of a time when you considered multiple perspectives.

Section 3: Case Study (25 minutes)

Read the following scenario and answer the questions:

Tom and his friends are planning a school dance. They want to raise money for a local charity, but they are having trouble deciding which charity to support. Some students want to support a charity that helps animals, while others want to support a charity that helps people. Tom is torn between the two options.

1. What are the ethical principles at play in this scenario?

Page 1 of 4

2. What are the potential consequences of each option?

3. What decision would you recommend Tom make and why?

Section 4: Reflection and Self-Assessment (15 minutes)

Answer each question in complete sentences:

1. What did you learn about ethical decision-making from this activity?

2. How can you apply the skills and principles learned in this activity to your everyday life?

Conclusion (5 minutes)

Congratulations on completing the Character Education - Ethical Decision Making worksheet! Remember that ethical decision-making is an important skill that can help you make informed choices and become a responsible and compassionate individual.

Assessment Rubric

This worksheet is worth a total of 100 points:

- Multiple Choice Questions: 30 points
- Short Answer Questions: 40 points
- Case Study: 30 points
- Reflection and Self-Assessment: 20 points

Note to Teachers

This worksheet is designed to be completed within a 45-minute class period. Please provide clear instructions and ensure that students understand the expectations and requirements of each question type. Consider providing modifications for diverse learners, such as extra time or one-on-one support. Use the assessment rubric to evaluate student responses and provide feedback.

