

PLANIT
TEACHERS

Introduction to Present Continuous Tense for Describing Ongoing Actions

Introduction (Page 1)

Welcome to this interactive worksheet on the present continuous tense! In this activity, you will learn how to use the present continuous tense to describe ongoing actions. You will act like reporters and use the grammar to describe what is happening around you.

What is the Present Continuous Tense? (Page 2)

The present continuous tense is used to describe actions that are happening at the moment of speaking. It is formed with the present participle (-ing form) of the verb and the auxiliary verb "to be".

Example: I am studying for my exam.

Video Analysis (Page 3)

Watch the video and identify the examples of the present continuous tense used by the reporters.

[Insert video]

Role-Play Activity (Page 4)

Act like a reporter and describe what is happening around you using the present continuous tense.

Example: The students are studying for their exams, and the teachers are preparing for the lessons.

Sentence Completion (Page 5)

Complete the sentences with the correct form of the present continuous tense.

1. I _____ (study) for my exam right now.
2. The students _____ (play) soccer in the park.
3. The teachers _____ (prepare) for the lessons.

Short Story Writing (Page 6)

Write a short story (about 100-150 words) that includes at least three sentences using the present continuous tense.

News Report (Page 7)

Create a short news report (about 100-150 words) that describes an ongoing event using the present continuous tense.

Reflection (Page 8)

Reflect on what you have learned about the present continuous tense. How can you use it in your daily life?

Individual Reflection:

1. What was the most surprising thing you learned today?

2. How will this learning change your actions in the future?

3. What questions do you still have about the present continuous tense?

Quiz (Page 9)

Take a short quiz to test your understanding of the present continuous tense.

1. What is the present continuous tense used for?
 1. a) To describe completed actions
 2. b) To describe ongoing actions
 3. c) To describe future actions
2. How is the present continuous tense formed?
 1. a) With the past participle of the verb and the auxiliary verb "to be"
 2. b) With the present participle of the verb and the auxiliary verb "to be"
 3. c) With the future participle of the verb and the auxiliary verb "to be"

Conclusion (Page 10)

Congratulations! You have completed the worksheet on the present continuous tense. Remember to practice using the present continuous tense in your daily life to describe ongoing actions.