Introduction and Instructions

Welcome to the Romeo and Juliet Character Analysis Homework Sheet! This activity is designed to help you analyze the characters in William Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet and understand their development throughout the play.

Instructions:

1. Read and review the entire play, Romeo and Juliet.
2. Choose three characters from the play to analyze in depth.
3. Complete the activities on the following pages to demonstrate your understanding of the characters.

Character Selection and Analysis

Choose three characters from the play and write their names below:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

For each character, answer the following questions:

- What is their introduction and initial impression?
- What are their motivations and goals?
- How do they relate to other characters?
- How do they develop throughout the play?
- What impact do they have on the plot and other characters?

Character Profile

Create a profile for each of the three selected characters, including:

- A brief description
- Quotes from the play that illustrate their personality, motivations, or relationships
- An analysis of their strengths and weaknesses
- A diagram or graph showing their relationships with other characters

Character 1:

Character Comparison Chart

Design a chart or table to compare the three characters, using the following categories:

- Motivations
- Relationships
- Personality traits
- Impact on the plot
- Development throughout the play

Character	Motivations	Relationships	Personality traits

Comparative Analysis

Write a comparative analysis (approx. 200-250 words) of the three characters, discussing similarities and differences in their traits, actions, and contributions to the play.

Conclusion

Summarize your findings in a concluding paragraph (approx. 100-150 words), reflecting on what you learned about the characters and their significance in Romeo and Juliet.

Creative Writing

Imagine you are one of the characters from the play. Write a diary entry or letter to another character, exploring their thoughts, feelings, and motivations at a pivotal moment in the play.

Character Debate

Prepare a debate on a topic related to the characters, such as "Was Romeo's impulsiveness the primary cause of the tragic ending?" or "Was Juliet's decision to fake her own death a brave or foolish move?" Research and argue for or against the topic, using evidence from the play to support your position.

Reflection and Feedback

Reflect on what you learned from this activity and provide feedback on how it helped you understand the characters in Romeo and Juliet.
