

Welcome to Narnia

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

"The Chronicles of Narnia" is a series of fantasy novels by C.S. Lewis. The series follows the adventures of children who find a magical land called Narnia, where they encounter talking animals, mythical creatures, and epic battles between good and evil.

1. What is the name of the series of fantasy novels by C.S. Lewis?

2. What is the name of the magical land in the series?

3. What kind of creatures do the children encounter in Narnia?

Exploring Narnian Virtues

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

The Narnian virtues include courage, honesty, and sacrifice. These virtues are essential for making good choices and living a virtuous life. In the story, the character of Lucy demonstrates courage when she stands up to the White Witch, while the character of Edmund demonstrates honesty when he confesses his betrayal to his siblings.

1. What are the three Narnian virtues mentioned in the passage?

2. Which character demonstrates courage in the story?

3. Which character demonstrates honesty in the story?

Applying Narnian Virtues to Real-Life Scenarios

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

Imagine you are in a situation where you have to choose between telling the truth and lying to your friend. What would you do? Would you demonstrate the virtue of honesty, or would you choose to lie?

1. What is the situation presented in the passage?

2. What virtue is relevant to this situation?

3. What would you do in this situation?

Moral Dilemmas

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

You are walking home from school when you see a friend being bullied by a group of kids. What do you do? Do you stand up to the bullies, or do you walk away?

1. What is the situation presented in the passage?

2. What are the two options presented?

3. What would you do in this situation?

Role-Play Activity

Divide into small groups and act out the following scenario:

You are a group of friends who have discovered a hidden treasure. However, one of your friends wants to keep the treasure for themselves, while the others want to share it with the rest of the community. What do you do?

1. What is the scenario presented?

2. What are the two options presented?

3. What would you do in this situation?

Reflection

Answer the following questions:

1. What are some of the key Narnian virtues?

2. How can we apply these virtues to real-life scenarios?

3. What are some moral dilemmas that require us to think critically and make difficult choices?

Creative Writing

Write a short story (approx. 250-500 words) about a time when you demonstrated one of the Narnian virtues. Use the following prompt:

Imagine you are in a situation where you have to choose between doing what is right and doing what is easy. What do you do?

[Space for creative writing]

Quiz Time

Answer the following questions:

1. What is the name of the main character in "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe"?

2. What is the name of the villain in "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe"?

3. What is the virtue demonstrated by the character of Aslan in "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe"?

Group Discussion

Discuss the following questions in small groups:

1. What are some ways we can apply the Narnian virtues to our everyday lives?

2. How can we overcome challenges and obstacles when making difficult choices?

3. What are some moral dilemmas that we may face in our lives, and how can we approach them in a thoughtful and reflective way?

Conclusion

Congratulations on completing our welcome pack! We hope you have enjoyed exploring the world of Narnia and learning about the Narnian virtues. Remember to always think critically and make informed decisions, and to apply the Narnian virtues to your everyday life.