

Introduction (Page 1 of 10)

This worksheet is designed to help 14-year-old students explore the themes and conflict resolution in Romeo and Juliet using sentence frames and role-playing activities.

The play Romeo and Juliet, written by William Shakespeare, is a tragic love story that explores the themes of love, hate, and conflict. The play is set in Verona, Italy, where two families, the Montagues and the Capulets, have a long-standing feud.

Understanding Conflict Resolution (Page 2 of 10)

Answer the following questions to understand conflict resolution in Romeo and Juliet:

1. What is conflict resolution, and why is it important in Romeo and Juliet?

2. How do the characters in Romeo and Juliet resolve conflicts, and what are the consequences of their actions?

3. What can we learn from the characters' experiences with conflict resolution, and how can we apply these lessons to our own lives?

Sentence Frames (Page 3 of 10)

Complete the following sentence frames to express your thoughts and ideas about Romeo and Juliet:

1. I think that _____ is a major theme in Romeo and Juliet because _____.

2. In the play, _____ is a character who _____.

3. The conflict between _____ and _____ is an example of _____.

Role-Playing Activity (Page 4 of 10)

Imagine you are a character in Romeo and Juliet. Write a short script (5-7 lines) for a conversation between you and another character. Use the following sentence frames to guide your conversation:

- I think that _____.
- I feel that _____.
- I want to _____.

Analyzing Character Motivations (Page 5 of 10)

Answer the following questions to analyze character motivations in Romeo and Juliet:

1. What motivates Romeo to fall in love with Juliet, and what are the consequences of his actions?

2. How does Juliet's family influence her decisions, and what role do they play in the conflict?

3. What can we learn from the characters' motivations and actions, and how can we apply these lessons to our own lives?

For ELL/ESL students:

- Use the following vocabulary list to help you understand the play:
 - Conflict
 - Resolution
 - Motivation
 - Character
- Use the following sentence frames to express your thoughts and ideas:
 - I think that _____.
 - I feel that _____.
 - I want to _____.

Conflict Resolution Strategies (Page 7 of 10)

Answer the following questions to understand conflict resolution strategies in Romeo and Juliet:

1. What are some strategies for resolving conflicts in a peaceful and respectful manner?

2. How can we use active listening and empathy to resolve conflicts?

3. What can we learn from the characters' experiences with conflict resolution, and how can we apply these lessons to our own lives?

Creative Writing (Page 8 of 10)

Write a short story (1-2 pages) that explores a theme or conflict from Romeo and Juliet. Use the following sentence frames to guide your writing:

- I think that _____.
- I feel that _____.
- I want to _____.

Reflection (Page 9 of 10)

Reflect on what you have learned from this worksheet. What did you find challenging or interesting? What did you learn about conflict resolution and the themes of Romeo and Juliet?

Conclusion (Page 10 of 10)

In conclusion, this worksheet has helped you explore the themes and conflict resolution in Romeo and Juliet using sentence frames and role-playing activities. Remember to apply what you have learned to your own life, and to use the strategies and sentence frames to help you resolve conflicts in a peaceful and respectful manner.