

Student Name: _____

Class: _____

Due Date: _____

Introduction

This homework sheet is designed to support classroom learning objectives in English Language Arts, focusing on the use of gerunds and likes when discussing dream jobs. The activities and questions in this sheet are tailored for 16-year-old students and are estimated to take 30-40 minutes to complete.

Section 1: Brainstorming

Dream Jobs

Take 5 minutes to brainstorm different dream jobs. Consider what you enjoy doing, what you are good at, and what kind of work environment you prefer. Write down your ideas in the space below:

Complete the Sentences

1. My dream job involves _____ (travel) around the world.

2. She loves _____ (help) people, which is why she wants to be a doctor.

3. He enjoys _____ (read) books, so he might become a librarian.

4. They are interested in _____ (develop) new software.

5. I hate _____ (wait) in long lines, so I wouldn't like a job that involves a lot of queuing.

Match the Words

1. Entrepreneur
2. Flexible
3. Deadline
4. Colleague
5. Promotion

- A) A person who starts their own business
- B) A person you work with
- C) The time by which something must be finished
- D) Able to change or be changed easily to suit different conditions
- E) The act of moving someone to a more important job

Write the correct letter next to each word:

--

Describe Your Dream Job

Write a short essay (about 250-300 words) describing your dream job. Be sure to include:

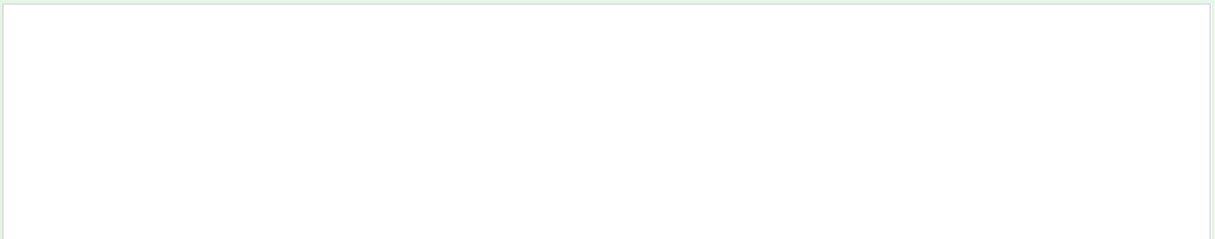

- What your dream job is
- Why you want this job (using likes and dislikes)
- What activities this job involves (using gerunds)
- How this job aligns with your skills and interests

Choose any combination:

1. Research and Presentation

2. Creative Writing

Success Criteria

To successfully complete this assignment, ensure you:

- Correctly use gerunds in sentences to describe activities
- Clearly express likes and dislikes related to your dream job
- Use vocabulary related to professions accurately
- Complete the short essay within the given word limit, incorporating all required elements
- Participate in self-assessment and reflection on your learning

Assess your own work using the success criteria above. Write down your thoughts and reflections:

Conclusion

This homework sheet is designed to help you practice English language skills and think critically about your future careers. Remember to have fun and be creative!