Introduction

The simple present tense is a fundamental concept in English grammar that is essential for effective communication. In this worksheet, you will learn how to form and use the simple present tense correctly.

Objective: By the end of this worksheet, you will be able to identify and use the simple present tense correctly in sentences and conversations.

Formation of the Simple Present Tense

The simple present tense is formed using the base form of the verb, with the addition of -s or -es for the third person singular.

- I walk (first person singular)
- you walk (second person singular)
- he/she/it walks (third person singular)

Exercise: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

1. I _____ (walk) to school every day.
2. My friend _____ (play) soccer every Saturday.

Usage of the Simple Present Tense

The simple present tense is used to describe habits, routines, and general truths.

- I wake up at 7:00 am every day.
- The sun rises in the east.

Exercise: Write five sentences using the simple present tense to describe your daily routine.

Exceptions and Irregularities

There are some exceptions and irregularities in the simple present tense, such as verbs that do not add -s or -es in the third person singular.

- have, do, go

Exercise: Identify the exceptions and irregularities in the following sentences:

1. I _____ (have) breakfast every morning.
2. My friend _____ (do) his homework every evening.
