

Guided Reading

Empowering 14-Year-Old Readers

Lesson Introduction

Guided reading is a powerful instructional approach that helps students in middle and high school develop essential reading skills and strategies. This lesson plan is designed to provide 14-year-old students with a structured and supportive environment to enhance their reading comprehension, fluency, and critical thinking abilities.

Core Subject Knowledge

Small Group Instruction

Work with students reading at similar levels to provide targeted support and personalized instruction.

Reading Strategy Development

Focus on skills like predicting, connecting, questioning, visualizing, and summarizing.

- Activate prior knowledge through pre-reading activities
- Implement during-reading comprehension strategies
- Conduct post-reading discussions for deeper understanding
- Select texts matching student reading levels
