

Student Name: _____

Class: _____

Due Date: _____

Pakistani culture is a rich and diverse blend of traditional and modern practices. It is shaped by the country's history, geography, and Islamic values. Pakistan is a country located in South Asia, with a population of over 200 million people. The official language is Urdu, but many other languages are also spoken, including Punjabi, Sindhi, and Pashto.

Complete these concept checks:

1. What is the official language of Pakistan?

- a) Urdu
- b) Punjabi
- c) Sindhi
- d) Pashto

2. What is the population of Pakistan?

- a) 100 million
- b) 200 million
- c) 300 million
- d) 400 million

Pakistani customs and traditions are an important part of the country's culture. Some common customs include:

- Removing shoes before entering a mosque or someone's home
- Using the right hand when eating or giving or receiving something
- Respecting elders and authority figures
- Celebrating festivals and holidays, such as Eid-al-Fitr and Eid-al-Azha

Complete these concept checks:

1. What is the significance of removing shoes before entering a mosque or someone's home?

- a) To show respect
- b) To keep the floor clean
- c) To follow tradition
- d) To avoid slipping

2. What is the importance of using the right hand when eating or giving or receiving something?

- a) To show respect
- b) To follow tradition
- c) To avoid contamination
- d) To improve coordination

Pakistani food is known for its rich and spicy flavors. Some popular dishes include:

- Biryani: a mixed rice dish made with spices, meat or vegetables, and basmati rice
- Kebabs: skewers of marinated meat, usually beef or chicken, grilled over an open flame
- Haleem: a slow-cooked stew made with wheat, lentils, and meat

Complete these concept checks:

1. What is the main ingredient in Biryani?

- a) Rice
- b) Meat
- c) Vegetables
- d) Spices

2. What is the cooking method used for Kebabs?

- a) Grilling
- b) Roasting
- c) Boiling
- d) Steaming

Daily life in Pakistan is shaped by the country's culture, history, and geography. Many people live in rural areas and work in agriculture or small-scale industries. Cities like Karachi and Lahore are hubs of commerce and industry.

Complete these concept checks:

1. What is the main occupation of people living in rural areas?

- a) Agriculture
- b) Industry
- c) Commerce
- d) Services

2. What are the major cities in Pakistan?

- a) Karachi and Lahore
- b) Islamabad and Quetta
- c) Peshawar and Multan
- d) All of the above

Pakistani festivals and celebrations are an important part of the country's culture. Some popular festivals include:

- Eid-al-Fitr: a celebration marking the end of Ramadan, the Islamic holy month of fasting
- Eid-al-Azha: a celebration commemorating the willingness of the Prophet Ibrahim to sacrifice his son
- Basant: a cultural festival marking the beginning of spring

Complete these concept checks:

1. What is the significance of Eid-al-Fitr?

- a) End of Ramadan
- b) Beginning of spring
- c) Prophet's birthday
- d) Independence day

2. What is the story behind Eid-al-Azha?

- a) Prophet Ibrahim's sacrifice
- b) Prophet Muhammad's birthday
- c) End of Ramadan
- d) Beginning of spring

Pakistani clothing and textiles are known for their vibrant colors and intricate designs. Some traditional clothing includes:

- Shalwar kameez: a long tunic and loose pants, often worn by men and women
- Sari: a long piece of fabric draped around the body, often worn by women
- Kurta: a long tunic, often worn by men

Complete these concept checks:

1. What is the traditional clothing worn by men and women in Pakistan?

- a) Shalwar kameez
- b) Sari
- c) Kurta
- d) All of the above

2. What is the significance of traditional clothing in Pakistani culture?

- a) To show respect
- b) To follow tradition
- c) To express identity
- d) All of the above

Conclusion

In conclusion, Pakistani culture is a rich and diverse blend of traditional and modern practices. It is shaped by the country's history, geography, and Islamic values. By learning about Pakistani culture, we can gain a deeper understanding of the country and its people.

Complete these concept checks:

1. What is the main factor that shapes Pakistani culture?

- a) History
- b) Geography
- c) Islamic values
- d) All of the above

2. What can we gain by learning about Pakistani culture?

- a) Deeper understanding of the country and its people
- b) Knowledge of Pakistani history
- c) Understanding of Islamic values
- d) All of the above

Choose one of the following activities:

1. Research and write about a Pakistani festival or celebration
2. Prepare a traditional Pakistani dish and share its recipe
3. Design and create a traditional Pakistani outfit

Glossary

Here is a list of key terms and their definitions:

- Biryani: a mixed rice dish made with spices, meat or vegetables, and basmati rice
- Kebabs: skewers of marinated meat, usually beef or chicken, grilled over an open flame
- Haleem: a slow-cooked stew made with wheat, lentils, and meat
- Shalwar kameez: a long tunic and loose pants, often worn by men and women
- Sari: a long piece of fabric draped around the body, often worn by women
- Kurta: a long tunic, often worn by men

Answer Key

Here are the answers to the concept checks:

1. 1. a) Urdu
2. 2. a) Biryani
3. 3. c) Basant
4. 4. d) All of the above
5. 5. c) Haleem