

Introduction (5 minutes)

Welcome to this educational worksheet on exploring courage and sacrifice through the character of Aslan and the Pevensie children from "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe" by C.S. Lewis. This worksheet is designed for 12-year-old students and aims to engage them in a fun and interactive way to understand the themes of courage and sacrifice.

Character Analysis (15 minutes)

Analyze the characters of Aslan and the Pevensie children. Answer the following questions:

1. What are some characteristics that make Aslan a courageous character?

2. How does Aslan demonstrate sacrifice in the story?

3. What motivates Aslan to make sacrifices for others?

Character Analysis (continued)

Analyze the characters of the Pevensie children. Answer the following questions:

1. How do the Pevensie children show courage in the face of danger?

2. What sacrifices do the Pevensie children make for each other and for the land of Narnia?

3. How do the Pevensie children grow and develop throughout the story?

Themes of Courage and Sacrifice (15 minutes)

Discuss the themes of courage and sacrifice in the story. Answer the following questions:

1. What is courage, and how is it demonstrated in the story?

2. What is sacrifice, and why is it important in the story?

3. How do the themes of courage and sacrifice relate to real-life situations?

Literary Devices (15 minutes)

Analyze the literary devices used by C.S. Lewis to convey the themes of courage and sacrifice. Answer the following questions:

1. What literary devices does C.S. Lewis use to convey the themes of courage and sacrifice?

2. How does the author use symbolism, imagery, and foreshadowing to enhance the story?

3. What effect do these literary devices have on the reader's understanding of the themes?

Activity 1: Courageous Moments (20 minutes)

Think of a time when you had to be brave or make a difficult choice. Write a short story (approximately 250-300 words) about what happened, how you felt, and what you learned from the experience.

Activity 2: Sacrifice in Action (25 minutes)

Create a visual project (such as a poster, infographic, or comic strip) that illustrates a situation where someone (historical figure, family member, or fictional character) made a significant sacrifice for the benefit of others.

Include a brief description of the situation, the sacrifice made, and its impact.

[Space for visual project]

Activity 3: Aslan's Courage (20 minutes)

Imagine you are Aslan, facing a challenge in Narnia that requires great courage and sacrifice. Write a diary entry or create a short story (approximately 300-350 words) detailing the challenge, your thoughts and feelings, and the actions you would take.

Conclusion (10 minutes)

In conclusion, exploring courage and sacrifice through the character of Aslan and the Pevensie children is a valuable learning experience for 12-year-old students. Through this worksheet, students will gain a deeper understanding of the themes of courage and sacrifice, as well as practical skills in analysis, discussion, and creative expression.

Individual Reflection:

1. What was the most surprising thing you learned today?

2. How will this learning change your actions in the future?

3. What questions do you still have about environmental impact?

Assessment

Participation in class discussions and activities (20 points)

Quality of written work and visual projects (30 points)

Depth of analysis and understanding of the themes (30 points)

Creativity and originality of work (20 points)

Extension

Research and present on a historical figure or contemporary hero who has demonstrated courage and sacrifice.

Create a visual project (such as a poster, infographic, or comic strip) that illustrates a situation where someone made a significant sacrifice for the benefit of others.

Write a short story or create a script for a scene where a character has to make a difficult choice that requires courage and sacrifice.