

Introduction

Welcome to our English language lesson! In this pack, we will explore common English phrases and sentence structures to help you communicate effectively. This pack is designed for beginners and includes engaging and interactive activities to make learning fun.

Section 1: Common English Phrases

A phrase is a group of words that express a complete thought or idea. Let's learn some common English phrases:

- Greetings: Hello, how are you?
- Introductions: My name is _____.
- Questions: What's your favorite food?

Activity 1: Phrase Matching

Match the phrases with their meanings:

1. Hello, how are you? a) Introduction b) Greeting c) Question
2. My name is _____. a) Greeting b) Introduction c) Question
3. What's your favorite food? a) Introduction b) Greeting c) Question

Section 2: Sentence Structures

A sentence is a group of words that express a complete thought or idea. Let's learn about basic sentence structures:

- Subject-Verb-Object (SVO) word order: I like reading.
- Using pronouns: He is my friend.

Activity 2: Sentence Building

Build simple sentences using the words below:

- I
- like
- reading
- books

Section 3: Vocabulary

Let's learn some new vocabulary:

- Happy
- Big
- Blue

Activity 3: Word Search

Find the vocabulary words in the word search below:

HBLUEOAISRTEHCLOEUYBGRTAINBIGHAPPYHBLUEOE

Conclusion

Congratulations! You have completed the welcome pack. Remember to practice your English phrases and sentence structures regularly. Good luck with your English learning journey!

Additional Resources

For more practice, try the following resources:

- Online quizzes and games
- Language learning apps
- English language exchange websites

Glossary

Here are some key terms to remember:

- Phrase: a group of words that express a complete thought or idea
- Sentence: a group of words that express a complete thought or idea
- Vocabulary: words and phrases used in a language

