

Introduction to Greetings and Introductions

Read the introduction and answer the questions that follow:

Welcome to our English lesson today, where we're going to explore one of the most important parts of any language: greetings and introductions. Can you think of a time when you met someone new and didn't know what to say? Maybe it was on your first day of school, or when you moved to a new neighborhood. Learning how to greet others and introduce yourself is a crucial part of making friends and feeling comfortable in new situations.

1. What is the main topic of this lesson?

2. Why is it important to learn how to greet others and introduce yourself?

Vocabulary Building

Match the vocabulary words with their definitions:

Vocabulary	Definition
Hello	A common greeting used during the day
Introduce	To tell someone your name and other information about yourself
Name	What people call you
From	Where someone is originally from
Hobby	An activity someone enjoys doing in their free time

Grammar Practice

Complete the sentences using the correct grammar:

1. My name is _____.

2. I am from _____.

3. I like _____.

Activities

Choose an activity to complete:

1. Introduction Interview: Ask a friend or family member to introduce themselves to you, and then introduce yourself back.
2. Greeting Charades: Act out different greetings (e.g., waving, shaking hands) and have your classmates guess what they are.
3. Role-Play Introductions: Practice introducing yourself to different people in different situations (e.g., meeting a new classmate, greeting a teacher).

[Space for activity completion]

Questions

Answer the questions:

1. What is your name?

2. How do you greet someone in the morning?

3. What is the correct way to introduce yourself?

4. What do you say when you meet someone for the first time?

5. Can you tell me about your favorite hobby?

Answer Key

Check your answers:

1. My name is [Name].
2. Good morning!
3. Hello, my name is [Name].
4. Nice to meet you.
5. I like [Hobby] because [Reason].

Extension Activities

Choose an extension activity to complete:

1. Create a Skit: Create a short skit that involves greetings and introductions in different scenarios.
2. Design Greeting Cards: Design greeting cards for different occasions using the vocabulary and grammar from the lesson.
3. Role-Play Different Cultures: Introduce yourself in different cultural contexts (e.g., bowing in Japan, kissing cheeks in France).

[Space for extension activity completion]

Assessment

Complete the assessment activities:

1. Role-Play Assessment: Practice introducing yourself and greeting others in different scenarios.
2. Written Quiz: Complete a short quiz to assess your understanding of the vocabulary and grammar.
3. Self-Introduction Video: Record a short video introducing yourself using the grammar and vocabulary from the lesson.

Conclusion

Read the conclusion and reflect on what you have learned:

In conclusion, learning how to greet others and introduce yourself is an essential part of any language. By practicing the vocabulary and grammar from this lesson, you will become more confident in your ability to communicate with others. Remember to always be respectful and polite when greeting others, and don't be afraid to make mistakes – it's all part of the learning process!

Individual Reflection:

1. What did you learn from this lesson?

2. How will you apply what you learned in your daily life?

3. What questions do you still have about greetings and introductions?

