

Developing Interactive Online Portfolios: Utilizing Gerunds to Express Passion for Dream Jobs and Career Paths

Introduction

Welcome to this interactive online portfolio development guide, designed for 14-year-old students. This guide will help you create a comprehensive online portfolio that showcases your strengths, skills, and career aspirations, while demonstrating a solid understanding of gerunds and their application in real-life scenarios.

Understanding Gerunds

A gerund is a verb form ending in -ing that functions as a noun. Gerunds are used to describe actions, tasks, and responsibilities. For example, "playing soccer" or "writing stories" are gerunds that can be used to describe hobbies or interests.

Activity 1: Identifying Gerunds

Identify the gerund in the following sentence: "I love playing soccer."

Creating an Interactive Online Portfolio

---

An interactive online portfolio is a digital collection of work, skills, and experiences that showcases your strengths and career aspirations. To create an interactive online portfolio, you will need to use digital learning tools and resources, such as online portfolio platforms, multimedia software, and collaboration tools.
