Digital Literacy Homework Sheet

PLANIT TEACHERS

Student Name: _____

Class: _____

Due Date: _____

Introduction to Digital Literacy

Welcome to our digital literacy homework sheet! This worksheet is designed to help you practice and reinforce the digital literacy skills you learned in class. Remember to always ask a grown-up for permission before using the internet or any digital device.

What is digital literacy?

Why is digital literacy important?

Online Safety

Online safety is an important aspect of digital literacy. It involves being aware of the potential risks and dangers of using the internet and taking steps to protect yourself and your personal information.

- Don't talk to strangers online
- Don't share personal info online
- Always ask a grown-up for permission

What are some online safety rules you should always follow?

Why is it important to be safe online?

Computer Hardware

A computer is made up of several hardware components, including the monitor, keyboard, and mouse. Each component has a specific function and is essential for the computer to work properly.

- Monitor: displays images and text
- Keyboard: used for typing
- Mouse: used for navigation

What are the basic parts of a computer?

What is the function of the keyboard?

Digital Citizenship

Digital citizenship involves being a responsible and respectful user of technology. It includes being kind online, respecting others' work, and not engaging in cyberbullying.

- Be kind online
- Respect others' work
- Don't cyberbully

What is digital citizenship?

Why is it important to be a good digital citizen?

Online Navigation

Online navigation involves using the internet to find and access information. It includes using search engines, browsing websites, and using hyperlinks.

- Use search engines to find information
- Browse websites to access information
- Use hyperlinks to navigate between websites

How do you navigate through a website?

What is a URL?

Digital Literacy Skills

Digital literacy skills include the ability to use technology to find, evaluate, and create information. It involves being able to use a variety of digital tools, including computers, tablets, and smartphones.

- Use digital tools to find information
- Evaluate online sources for credibility
- Create digital content using a variety of tools

What are some digital literacy skills you have learned?

How can you apply these skills in your daily life?

Read each scenario and choose the correct answer:

1. You receive an email from an unknown sender. What do you do?
   - Open the email and read it
   - Delete the email without opening it
   - Ask a grown-up for help

2. You want to download a new game on your tablet. What do you do?
   - Download the game without asking a grown-up
   - Ask a grown-up for permission before downloading the game
   - Don't download the game

Digital Citizenship Quiz

What is cyberbullying?

Why is it important to respect others' work online?

What can you do if you witness cyberbullying?

Computer Hardware Quiz

What is the function of the monitor?

What is the function of the keyboard?

What is the function of the mouse?

Digital Literacy Skills Quiz

What are some digital literacy skills you have learned?

How can you apply these skills in your daily life?

What are some challenges you face when using digital devices?

Conclusion

Congratulations on completing the digital literacy homework sheet! Remember to always practice your digital literacy skills and stay safe online.

Extension Activity: Create a poster about online safety rules and share it with your class.