

Introduction

Welcome to the Introduction to Basic Shapes and Colors through Play-Based Learning! This worksheet is designed for 1-year-olds to learn and recognize basic shapes and colors through fun and interactive activities.

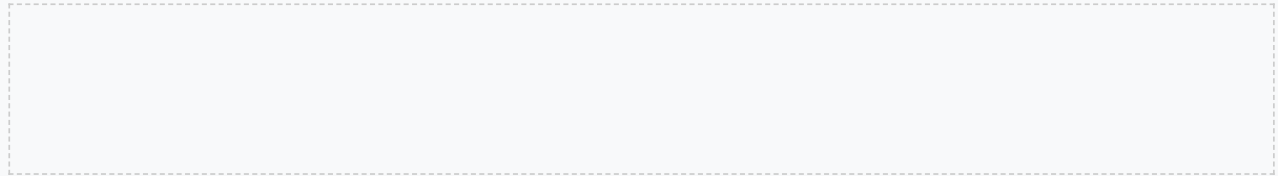

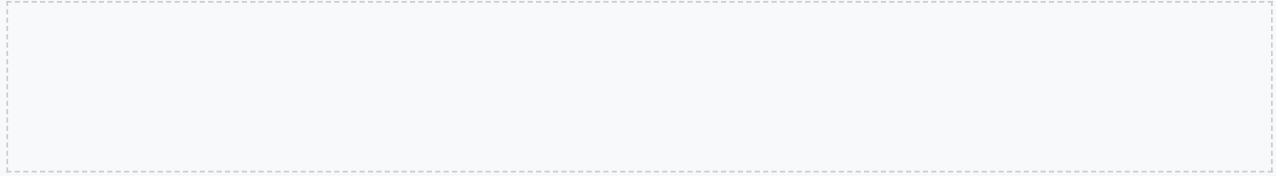

Table of Contents

1. Introduction
2. Shape Recognition
3. Color Recognition
4. Shape and Color Sorting
5. Real-Life Associations
6. Extension Tasks for Advanced Learners
7. Activities and Questions
8. Conclusion

Introduction

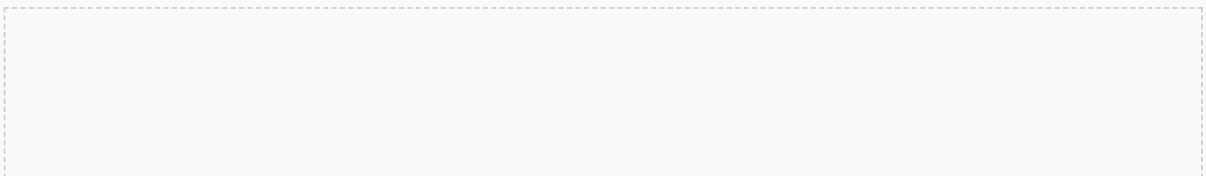

This worksheet is designed to introduce basic shapes and colors to 1-year-olds through play-based learning. The activities and questions are designed to be fun and interactive, while also promoting learning and recognition of basic shapes and colors.

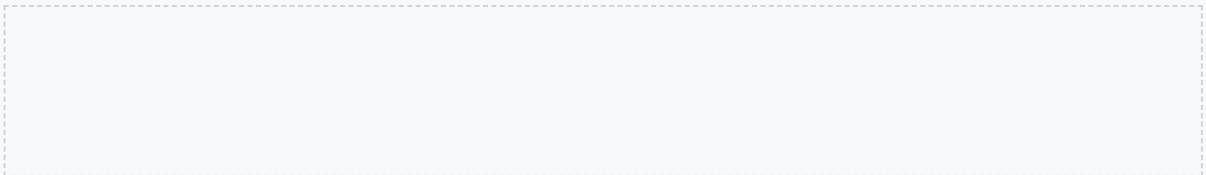

Shape Recognition

Let's learn about basic shapes! Can you find something in the room that is a:

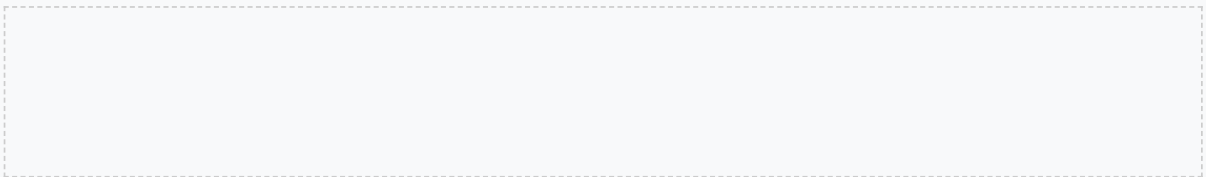

1. Circle

2. Square

3. Triangle

Color Recognition

Let's learn about basic colors! Can you find something in the room that is:

1. Red

2. Blue

3. Yellow

Shape and Color Sorting

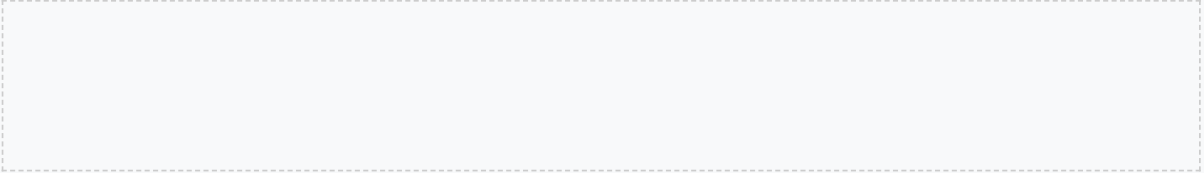

Sort the following shapes by color:

Shape	Color
Circle	Red
Square	Blue
Triangle	Yellow

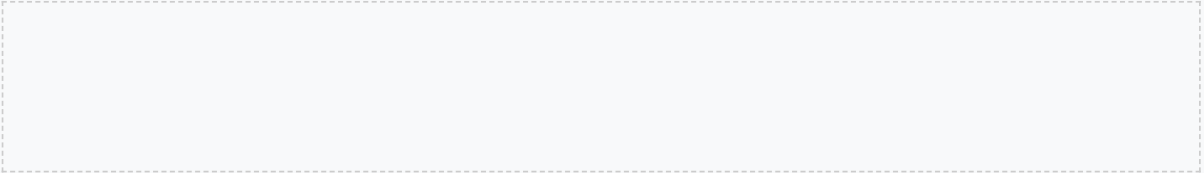

Real-Life Associations

Find something in the room that is a:

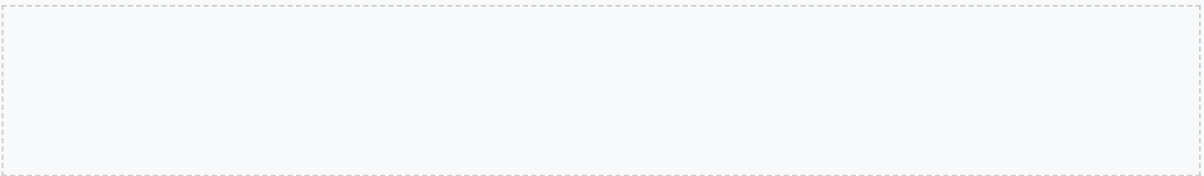

1. Circle and is red

2. Square and is blue

3. Triangle and is yellow

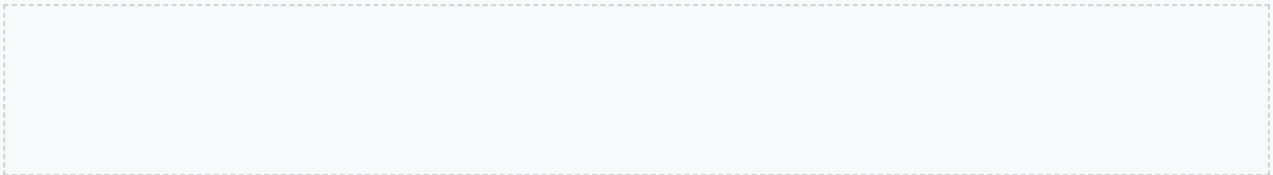

Extension Tasks for Advanced Learners

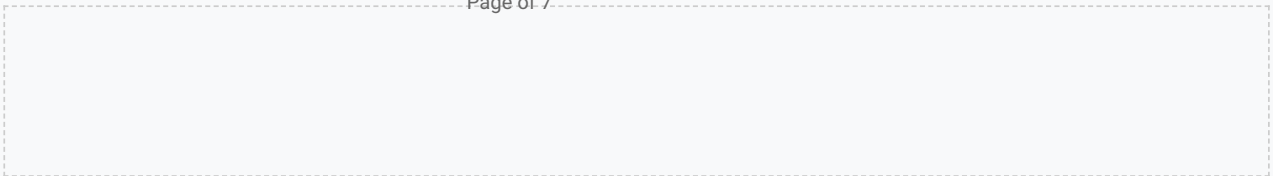

Create a shape collage using different materials and colors.

Match complex shapes to their real-life counterparts.

Design and color your own shape-themed picture.

Activities and Questions

1. What is your favorite shape and why?

2. Can you find something in the room that is a combination of two shapes?

3. What color do you think will be created when you mix red and blue?

4. Can you sort the following objects by shape and color?

Object	Shape	Color
Ball	Circle	Red
Block	Square	Blue
Toy	Triangle	Yellow

Conclusion

Congratulations on completing the Introduction to Basic Shapes and Colors through Play-Based Learning! We hope you had fun learning and recognizing basic shapes and colors. Remember to always keep exploring and learning!

