

Welcome to this Interactive Worksheet!

---

This worksheet is designed to help you learn about reported speech and its importance in everyday communication. You will find a variety of activities and questions to help you understand and practice using reported speech.

What is Reported Speech?

---

Reported speech is when we tell someone what another person said, without using their exact words. It's like retelling a story or conveying a message from someone else.

Activity 1: Matching Game

Match the following sentences with their reported speech equivalents:

1. "I will meet you at 5 pm," said John.
2. "She loves playing tennis," said Emily.
3. "We are going to the movies tonight," said Michael.

Reported Speech Equivalents:

1. a) John said that he would meet me at 5 pm.
2. b) Emily said that she loved playing tennis.
3. c) Michael said that they were going to the movies that night.

Activity 2: Fill in the Blanks

Complete the following sentences with the correct reported speech:

1. "I _____ that I would meet you at 5 pm," said John.
2. "She _____ that she loved playing tennis," said Emily.
3. "We _____ that we were going to the movies tonight," said Michael.

Activity 3: Short Story

Write a short story (less than 100 words) using reported speech to describe a conversation between two friends.

Activity 4: Quiz Time!

Answer the following questions:

1. What is reported speech?
2. Why is reported speech important in everyday communication?
3. Can you give an example of a situation where reported speech is used?

Activity 5: Role-Play

---

Work in pairs to practice using reported speech in a conversation. Take turns telling each other a story or conveying a message from someone else.

Group Task:

Practice using reported speech in a conversation.

Conclusion

---

Congratulations! You have completed this interactive worksheet on reported speech. Remember, reported speech is an important part of everyday communication, and practicing it will help you become a more effective communicator.

Additional Resources

---

For more practice and review, check out the following resources:

- Online grammar guides
- Language learning apps
- English language textbooks

Assessment

---

Use the following criteria to assess your understanding of reported speech:

1. Can you define reported speech and explain its importance?
2. Can you use reported speech correctly in a conversation?
3. Can you identify and correct errors in reported speech?

Extension Activity

---

Create a short presentation or video using reported speech to convey a message or tell a story. Share it with your class or online community!

